for the greatest good

There is no government housing available. The supervisor of this position will be the District Operations Staff.

THE DUTY STATION

The position will be stationed in Waldport, Oregon.

Waldport is a city of approximately 2,000 residents located on US Highway 101 in southern Lincoln County, near the middle of the Oregon coast. Waldport offers small businesses such as a grocery store, restaurants, gas stations, hardware and variety stores, banking institutions, and a health clinic. Waldport has miles of sandy ocean beaches, forest roads, hiking trails, wilderness areas, and a picturesque bay. This is the coast treasured by Oregonians. Waldport offers fishing, crabbing, biking, hiking, sailing, and more. For more information about the community of Waldport visit the Chamber of Commerce website: <http://www.waldport-chamber.com/>.

The nearest full-service community is Newport, OR located about 16 miles north of Waldport. Newport has approximately 10,000 residents and offers larger shopping opportunities, a hospital, a variety of entertainment including a theatre and performing arts center. For more information on Newport visit: <http://www.newportchamber.org/>, or <http://www.thecityofnewport.net/>

There are a variety of housing options in the Waldport/Newport area and within the community of Yachats 8 miles south. Prices vary, but tend to run on the high side as you near rivers and the ocean beach. Rentals are available from $750 to $1,100 per month, and homes are available to purchase from $170,000 to $250,000 or higher.

All three levels of schooling are present in the area and there is a community college campus located in Newport.

ABOUT THE RANGER DISTRICT:

The 479,000 acre Central Coast Ranger District-Oregon Dunes National Recreation Area extends from Newport, OR in the north to North Bend, OR in the south; from the Pacific Ocean to the crest of the coast range mountains (just west of Corvallis and Eugene). The Siuslaw's coastal influence, ocean-forest interface, relatively young Douglas-fir forest, and cultural history make it unique. Restoration, Recreation and Partnerships are key to the Forest's program. The Forest has been a leader in stewardship contracting, with three Stewardship Groups on the district. These have been instrumental in building community connections and furthering restoration work on the National Forest System and adjacent lands using the Wyden authority.

ABOUT THE FOREST:

The Siuslaw National Forest headquarters is located in Corvallis, Oregon. The headquarters is co-located with the Pacific Northwest Research Station on the campus of Oregon State University. The forest lies about 20 miles west of Corvallis and encompasses a little over 600,000 acres stretching from Hebo to the north along the Pacific Coast, south to the Oregon Dunes National Recreation Area which covers 30,000 acres. The Forest lies on the east and west sides of the Oregon Coast Range with the highest point being Mary's Peak at 4,097 feet.

The forest is known for its density of great rivers and fishing (3,200 miles of perennial and 5,000 miles of intermittent streams used by 5 species of salmon), as well as abundant elk and other wildlife, tall trees and diverse forest products in a coastal rain forest environment.

for the greatest good

There are 3 wilderness areas, covering 22,500 acres and 132 miles of hiking trails within the forest. Other recreation opportunities include beach-combing, sand dune OHV riding and trekking, hunting, and boating/fishing in abundant coastal lakes, bays, and estuaries.

The forest is currently focusing on the following priority items: 1) Create healthy forest habitat; 2) Provide coastal recreational experiences; 3) Nurture partnerships; and 4) Restore streams and aquatic species.

The position will be stationed in Waldport, Oregon. Applicants must apply to this location if they wish to be considered.
