

Sierra Pacific Industries

District Forester Mt. Vernon, WA

Our Forestry Division has an opening for a qualified Forester to help manage the Company's timberlands in Skagit, Whatcom, and Snohomish counties. The successful applicant will work out of the Mt Vernon, WA office.

ABOUT THE POSITION

- Implement all aspects of the timber harvest program; perform harvest layout and permitting, administer road building and logging contracts, and ensure log quality control
- Assist in the development of harvest budgets and forecasts
- Assist, as needed, with silvicultural programs including reforestation, vegetation management, tree improvement, and inventory
- Effectively work both within a team setting and independently in remote areas, in all seasons and weather conditions
- Professionally and effectively interact with state regulatory agencies and diverse groups
- Hike in remote mountainous regions using maps, compass or GPS

QUALIFICATIONS

- 2 to 5 years of experience in harvest engineering and/or harvest unit layout in the Pacific Northwest
- Solid understanding of operational and cost considerations of cable and ground-based logging systems and forest road construction
- Working familiarity with Washington forest practice rules
- Degree in Forestry or related field (demonstrated equivalent work experience will be considered)
- Excellent organizational skills, self-motivated, and a strong work ethic
- Skilled with Word, Outlook, Excel, ArcGIS software; RoadEng or CAD considered a plus
- Have or able to obtain a valid Washington driver's license, and ability to drive hazardous mountain roads
