Bureau of Land Management is hiring 100 interns!

Portland, Ore. — Are you looking to kickstart a career in civil service?

Are you looking for a fun, fulfilling way to spend your summer?

Over the next couple of weeks, the Bureau of Land Management is hiring 100 interns across the country, some of them right here in the Pacific Northwest. Come work with us! Job applications will be open on USAjobs from December 8 through December 18, 2023. Don't miss the opportunity!

Leaders from BLM Oregon/Washington will host two Zoom workshops to help students navigate the application process.

“Applying for a job with the federal government is a little different than applying for other jobs,” said Amanda Roberts, BLM Prineville District Manager. “I’m excited to help students from our community get involved!”

Roberts will provide an hour-long presentation on building federal resumes. There will also be approximately 30 minutes available for workshop attendees to ask questions. The two webinars will cover the same content. The first webinar will be recorded and posted to YouTube.

The workshops will place on:

- Saturday, December 9 at 10 a.m.,
(register here: https://blm.zoomgov.com/webinar/register/WN\_bRLEkvirQRGj8O-b4g1dsw)
- Thursday, December 14 at 4 p.m.

Students will get the most out of the workshop if they have already set up an account on USAjobs.gov.

Anyone 16 years or older and enrolled or soon to be enrolled in school is eligible to apply.

The American people rely on the BLM to care for their public land, and BLM leaders are committed to building a team that represents all of America.

“Civil service has been a fulfilling and meaningful career for me,” said Roberts. “Our ultimate goal is to give that same opportunity to the next generation.”

We are looking for interns in a variety of fields and functions, including:

- Civil Engineering
- Public Affairs
- Information Technology
- Survey
- Administration
- Land Law Examiner
- Natural Resources
- Land Surveyor
- Wildland Fire
- GIS
- Human Resources
- Grant Management
- Contracting
