Description

WASHINGTON STATE DEPARTMENT OF NATURAL RESOURCES

Presales Forester, NRS2/NRS1 (In-Training)

Recruitment #2023-6-6428

Full-time, Permanent, Represented position.

Location: Northwest Region- Sedro Woolley, WA. Position may also be filled out of Arlington, WA or Granite Falls, WA.

Telework flexibility may be available and considered

Salary: $4,013 - $5,399 Monthly

In addition to the salary range listed, a general wage increase of 4% will be applied for all state employees on July 1, 2023.

Want to join something GREAT and make a difference?

The successful applicant will become part of a team of outstanding natural resources professionals dedicated to the sustainable management of DNR trust lands and our fiduciary responsibilities to the trust beneficiaries. This position provides forestry expertise on DNR uplands to achieve agency goals and deliverables. Sustaining long-term ecosystem protection and productivity is achieved through careful planning, diligent project management and active coordination of input from specialists and stakeholders. The economic viability of these working forests will be maintained by robust communication and teamwork in order to maintain or enhance revenue generating activities on trust lands. This position helps Northwest Region achieve the mission through strong leadership, thoughtful decision making, and excellent planning. The incumbent plans, coordinates and manages timber sales and silvicultural activities on trust land, under the guidance of a unit forester. This position works in the office and in the field, implementing DNR policies and procedures including the Habitat Conservation Plan (1997), Policy for Sustainable Forests (2006), relevant WAC's including the Forest Practices Rules, and the Multiple Use Concept (RCW 79.10.120).

Duties

Responsibilities:

- Research and analyze operability and feasibility of harvest units. Develop a timber harvest plan using GIS, LIDAR, logging system analysis software, aerial photos, field observations, and maps and consult with engineers, other foresters and the unit forester to implement prudent harvest systems and road locations.
- Foster positive, professional working relations with community members and adjacent landowners and be transparent about our operations. Communicate and negotiate with adjacent landowners and external stakeholders through various means including public meetings, field site visits, and use written and oral communication strategies to outreach regarding planned projects, clarify property line discrepancies, discuss cost share agreements and discuss access for state lands projects.
- Implement Habitat Conservation Plan (HCP) requirements and Policy for Sustainable Forest (PSF) requirements such as legacy cohorts and sensitive area protections like potentially unstable slopes, riparian areas, old growth and cultural resources, all while maintaining a feasible harvest operation by coordinating site visits and consulting with biologists, geologists, archeologists and silviculturists.
- Analyze and ensure all planned sale units are safe, meet economic and fiduciary requirements and compliment long term watershed and landscape objectives and protect or mitigate environmental concerns. Harvest units will be examined and selected by analyzing ecological constraints, economic constraints and social constraints.
- Appropriately assess, classify, delineate and buffer all waters and wetlands within and adjacent to the harvest area. Field observations, LIDAR, biologist consultation and informal training will be utilized to apply the appropriate buffers per the department's Habitat Conservation Plan, Policy for Sustainable Forests, and Forest Practices Rules.
- Delineate a timber sale boundary that allows for feasible harvest operations which comply with all policies, rules, and regulations. GPS points will be collected to create shapefiles in GIS. The HCP, Forest Practices Rules and all other applicable rules and regulations will be followed and specialists will be consulted
- Use GPS to collect data for boundaries, streams, wetlands, leave trees, and road locations. Flag and traverse new forest road locations that comply with all rules and regulations. Consultation with specialists, including engineers, geologists and forest practices foresters is required and projects will utilize LiDAR, GIS, and specialized roads training and forestry equipment such as the GPS, clinometer, compass, maps, stringbox, and laser to achieve this objective.
- Create final professional level timber sale packet and maps that complies with all state and federal regulations and department protocols. Using professional experience, complete all necessary permitting and paperwork (FPA, SEPA, HCP checklist, contract), while reviewing previously completed documents found on the department's Timber Sale Document Center (TSDC).

Benefits

More than Just a Paycheck!

Employee benefits are not just about the kind of services you get, they are also about how much you may have to pay out of pocket. Washington State offers one of the most competitive benefits packages in the nation.

We understand that your life revolves around more than just your career. Like everyone, your first priority is ensuring that you and your family will maintain health and financial security. That's why choice is a key component of our benefits package. We have a selection of health and retirement plans, paid leave, staff training and other compensation benefits that you can mix and match to meet your current and future needs.

Read about our benefits:

The following information describes typical benefits available for full-time employees who are expected to work more than six months. Actual benefits may vary by appointment type or be prorated for other than full-time work (e.g. part-time); view the job posting for benefits details for job types other than full-time.

Note: If the position offers benefits which differ from the following, the job posting should include the specific benefits.

Insurance Benefits

Employees and their families are covered by medical (including vision), dental and basic life insurance. There are multiple medical plans with affordable monthly premiums that offer coverage throughout the state.

Staff are eligible to enroll each year in a medical flexible spending account which enables them to use tax-deferred dollars toward their health care expenses. Employees are also covered by basic life and long-term disability insurance, with the option to purchase additional coverage amounts.

To view premium rates, coverage choice in your area and how to enroll, please visit the Public Employees Benefits Board \(PEBB\) website. The Washington Wellness program from the Health Care Authority works with PEBB to support our workplace wellness programs.

Dependent care assistance allows the employee to save pre-tax dollars for a child or elder care expenses.

Other insurance coverage for auto, boat, home, and renter insurance is available through payroll deduction.

The Washington State Employee Assistance Program promotes the health and well-being of employees.

Retirement and Deferred Compensation

State Employees are members of the Washington Public Employees' Retirement System (PERS). New employees have the option of two employer contributed retirement programs. For additional information, check out the Department of Retirement Systems' web site.

Employees also have the ability to participate in the Deferred Compensation Program (DCP). This is a supplemental retirement savings program (similar to an IRA) that allows you control over the amount of pre-tax salary dollars you defer as well as the flexibility to choose between multiple investment options.

Social Security

All state employees are covered by the federal Social Security and Medicare systems. The state and the employee pay an equal amount into the system.

Public Service Loan Forgiveness

If you are employed by a government or not-for-profit organization, and meet the qualifying criteria, you may be eligible to receive student loan forgiveness under the Public Service Loan Forgiveness Program.

Holidays

Full-time and part-time employees are entitled to paid holidays and one paid personal holiday per calendar year.

Note: Employees who are members of certain Unions may be entitled to additional personal leave day(s), please refer to position specific Collective Bargaining Agreements for more information.

Full-time employees who work full monthly schedules qualify for holiday compensation if they are employed before the holiday and are in pay status for at least 80 nonovertime hours during the month of the holiday; or for the entire work shift preceding the holiday.

Part-time employees who are in pay status during the month of the holiday qualify for the holiday on a pro-rata basis. Compensation for holidays (including personal holiday) will be proportionate to the number of hours in pay status in the month to that required for full-time employment, excluding all holiday hours. Pay status includes hours worked and time on paid leave.

Sick Leave

Full-time employees earn eight hours of sick leave per month. Overtime eligible employees who are in pay status for less than 80 hours per month, earn a monthly proportionate to the number of hours in pay status, in the month to that required for full-time employment. Overtime exempt employees who are in pay status for less than 80 hours per month do not earn a monthly accrual of sick leave.

Sick leave accruals for part-time employees will be proportionate to the number of hours in pay status, in the month to that required for full-time employment. Pay status includes hours worked, time on paid leave and paid holiday.

Vacation (Annual Leave)

Full-time employees accrue vacation leave at the rates specified in WAC 357-31-165\(1\) or the applicable collective bargaining agreement (CBA). Full-time employees who are in pay status for less than 80 nonovertime hours in a month do not earn a monthly accrual of vacation leave.

Part-time employees accrue vacation leave hours in accordance with WAC 357-31-165\(1\) or the applicable collective bargaining agreement (CBA) on a pro rata basis. Vacation leave accrual will be proportionate to the number of hours in pay status, in the month to that required for full-time employment.

Pay status includes hours worked, time on paid leave and paid holiday.

As provided in WAC 357-58-175, an employer may authorize a lump-sum accrual of vacation leave or accelerate the vacation leave accrual rate to support the recruitment and/or retention of a candidate or employee for a Washington Management Service position. Vacation leave accrual rates may only be accelerated using the rates established WAC 357-31-165.

Note: Most agencies follow the civil service rules covering leave and holidays for exempt employees even though there is no requirement for them to do so. However, agencies are required to adhere to the applicable RCWs pertaining holidays and leave.

Military Leave

Washington State supports members of the armed forces with 21 days paid military leave per year.

Bereavement Leave

Most employees whose family member or household member dies, are entitled to three (3) days of paid bereavement leave. In addition, the employer may approve other available leave types for the purpose of bereavement leave.

Additional Leave
