

CAREER OPPORTUNITY

The Intern IV - Sustainability assists the Sustainability Program Specialist in the completion of the community and organizational greenhouse inventories. Responsibilities include project research, data compilation, documentation, reporting and evaluation.

Non-represented, casual position
Part-time, approx. 10-20 hours per week
Flexible schedule during regular business hours

Must meet all qualifications and requirements as listed in the position description.

Hourly Pay Rate: $16.71 - $19.33
Position is open until filled with first review of applications December 30, 2024.

The City Manager's Office (CMO) ensures the City runs effectively and efficiently to achieve what Corvallis community members, through the City Council, want to accomplish with the resources available. CMO provides leadership, coordination and management for the City organization and support for the City Council. CMO also works to provide timely information to our community and encourage connection between community members and the City organization.

APPLY NOW!

www.corvallisoregon.gov

An Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer in Compliance with ADA.

The City of Corvallis is located in the heart of Oregon's Willamette Valley. Corvallis is home to Oregon State University and is highly regarded as an innovative, engaged, and vibrant community.