

Wanted: Olympic Coast Horticulture Summer Intern

Are you passionate about native coastal and rainforest botany? Do ferns dazzle you? Cozy mosses invite you? Burly Sitka Spruce awe you? Does wind-swept coastal terrain invigorate you? Would you like to live on and get paid to caretake and improve twenty-five acres of pristine wilderness for a private preservationist landowner, throughout the summer of 2021?

My family is seeking a Groundskeeper and rental cabin Caretaker for a very unique, pristine, family-owned coastal property, with over 1,000' of beachfront forest adjacent to Olympic National Park. This is a private oceanfront property where we host and rent to a limited number of guests year-round. This is a perfect job for Botany/Horticulture student with a love, knowledge and PASSION for PNW ecosystems, who wants to help the land thrive, likes working hard outdoors in the rainforest in any weather, while making a living wage.

Number of days per week on-site: 4
Landscaping Responsibilities: 20 hrs/wk
Rental/Hosting Responsibilities: 10 hrs/wk

Landscaping - maintaining grounds, pruning Salal, removing Alders and Salmonberries, improving campsite areas
Camp site management - assuring 3 campsites are properly used & kept in working condition throughout the summer
Overseeing grounds and guest use of the property
Cabin cleaning - cleaning and setting up one rental cabin between guests (approx 2x/wk)

Accommodations - live on site in a private area in your own tent or van. Owner open to providing a more spacious structure, but none currently on site. Restroom available on site. Access to showers, cabin facilities available on turn-over. Rental shower located about 1 mile away at nearby gas station.

Dates: Mid-June – End of August

Rate: $2,000/month
