

Timber Stand Improvement – White River National Forest

Entry – Level Seasonal Positions Available Summer 2024

Base of the Continental Divide in Silverthorne, Colorado

Requirements:

- 18 Years Old
- Interest in Forestry / Logging / Environmental Sciences
- Available to Start Mid - May

Day to Day:

- Training and application of safe chainsaw operations including limbing, bucking and felling of trees and snags
- Native tree planting
- Inspection of natural and artificial regeneration of western tree species including lodgepole pine, subalpine fir, Engelmann spruce and quaking aspen
- Cone collection
- Identification and marking of cut and leave trees for harvest operations on public lands
- Rehabilitation and light mechanical site preparation in post-harvest units
- Implementation of stake row study sites for seedling monitoring
- Use of Trimble GNSS receivers for remote data collection
- Training and use of forestry tools including diameter tape, clinometers, compasses, increment borers
- Other tasks as assigned to assist other program areas on the White River National Forest
- Opportunity to obtain NWCG S-130/S-190 Firefighter II training to be made available for wildland fire assignments across the country

Benefits:

- Forest Service Housing May be Available
- 3 – Day Weekends
- 1,000's of miles of singletrack biking and hiking trails
- Adjacent to two world class alpine wilderness areas

Apply:

- Applications available on USA Jobs Between October 26th and November 8th, 2023
 - GS 4/5/6 based on experience
 - Internships will also be available through the Rocky Mountain Youth Conservation Corps (Apply Spring, 2023)

Job Announcement Numbers:

Series/ Grade	Type of Position	DUTY LOCATION	Application Acceptance Dates
GS-0462- 04/05/06	Forestry Tech (Timber Stand Improvement)	Silverthorne, CO	October 26 – November 8th

For More Information Contact:

Tyler Peterka, Forester, 970-914-8077, tyler.peterka@usda.gov