Want to join something GREAT and make a difference?

The Washington State Department of Natural Resources (DNR) is looking for qualified candidates for the Federal Lands Natural Resource Scientist position. This position works statewide across National Forest System Lands and Bureau of Land Management Lands to develop, support, and execute short and long-term environmental planning projects under the National Environmental Policy Act (NEPA) pertaining to the Endangered Species Act (ESA). Deliverables contribute to decisions on Environmental Impact Statements, Environmental Assessments, and Categorical Exclusions.

This position represents a unique opportunity to be part of an interdisciplinary team that works closely with a variety of state, federal, and Tribal partners. Your role, while primarily focused on providing wildlife and fisheries resource support, also offers opportunities to work with other disciplines, including archaeologists, geologists, and foresters.

This position requires fieldwork that is state-wide and involves up to 75% travel. Duties likely include traversing steep and rugged terrain, many times in inclement weather, and potentially carrying up to 40 pounds of equipment.

The federal government manages roughly 44 percent of Washington's 22.4 million acres of forested land. Through our Federal Lands Section, using the Department's Good Neighbor Authority (GNA), we aim to bring state capacity and resources to achieve our shared goals for maintaining and restoring the health of forest ecosystems on national forest lands.

Duties

Responsibilities:

- Performs fish and wildlife field surveys and report writing in support of projects to meet ESA and NEPA standards.

- Willingness to work independently, or as a part of a team, conducting field reconnaissance in remote locations, often with no cell phone service. Demonstrates the capacity to solve problems.
- Participate on interdisciplinary teams to evaluate the impact of agency or non-agency activities on federal lands. This may include supporting/performing interdisciplinary scientific field surveys.
- Ability to work safely in challenging, rough terrain, adverse weather, and in swift-moving water. Responsible for maintaining field equipment and may be required to carry up to 40lbs.
- Support planning and executing administrative studies and surveys. Activities include the preparation of maps, surveys, ESA historic and sensitive data, and reports. Prevent or mitigate impacts associated with land management.
- Records field conditions, taking detailed notes, and filling out data forms in designated project unit boundaries in support of NEPA decisions for forest restoration and wildfire resilience activities.
- Records and organizes data on Threatened, Endangered, and Sensitive Species in accordance with federal and state agency standards.
- Works alongside a variety of resource specialists, including fish and wildlife biologists, geologists, archaeologists, and forestry interdisciplinary team members.
- Communicates orally and in writing to provide formal and informal briefings to technical experts. Helps communicate technical reports to the public in lay terms.
- Engage at the interagency level with partners to discuss project-related requests, address barriers, and recommend solutions.
- Coordinate closely with partner planning managers and specialists in activities conducted by the Federal Lands Environmental Planning Program. Regularly engage in field, virtual, or in-person meetings to ensure projects meet or exceed expectations and requirements.
- Provide exceptional customer service when engaging with internal and external partners. Demonstrate mutual respect between agencies through professional and punctual response times.

Qualifications

Required Qualifications:

- A Bachelor's degree in natural sciences;
OR an equivalent combination of education and/or experience in collecting and analyzing natural resource scientific data.
- Experience with GIS and Microsoft Office Suites, field recording software/ applications (Field maps, Avenza Maps, etc.).
- Experience in data entry and management.

- History of positive, responsive, cooperative, collaborative interaction with the public and other professionals (both inter-organizational and interdisciplinary).
- Commitment to fostering and supporting an environment that honors diversity, equity, inclusion, and environmental justice practices.
- Perform assigned duties in a manner consistent with applicable laws, regulations, and public records retention and requests are followed.
- DNR Core Competencies:
  - Personal Accountability
  - Value Others
  - Compassionate Communication
  - Inspire Others
  - Commitment to Excellence

Special Requirements and Conditions of Employment:

- Work is performed in an office setting or other meeting locations and field environments. Field work will require walking over steep and rugged terrain and in inclement weather.
- Position requires travel for meetings, fieldwork, and visits, estimated at up to 70% of the time. This requires travel to regions, national forests, and other locations statewide. Interstate travel may be required at times.
- A current, valid driver's license and two years of driving experience. Additionally, DNR requires state drivers to possess a license that is not suspended, revoked, or restricted (for example, Occupational/Restricted Driver Licenses or requiring ignition interlock devices). This position requires driving as an essential function. Finalists and/or interview candidates will be asked to provide a driving record from all states in which they have held a license during the past three years.

Desired Qualifications:

- Bachelor's degree (or greater) in Wildlife, Fisheries, Natural Resources, Biology, Ecology, or related field; AND, three years of professional work experience, including fieldwork dedicated to environmental planning and analysis, biological sciences, land use, and urban or environmental planning.
- Knowledge of current field research methods and scientific report writing with an emphasis in a forested environment, preferably in the northwestern United States, aids in conducting resource management on federal, state, and/or private lands.
- Competency using GIS systems and the ability to read, create, and display spatial information in ArcPro.
- Knowledge of federal policies and procedures implemented under the USFS and other federal agencies, including the National Environmental Policy Act (NEPA), the Agricultural Act of 2014 (2014 U.S. Farm Bill), and other federal policies associated with the implementation and planning of federal projects.
- Ability to:

- Accept responsibility for assigned tasks and activities
- Develop long-range work plans, think conceptually, observe and interpret trends, analyze data, identify key relationships, and draw logical conclusions
- Maintain effective working relationships with government officials
- Provide a consistent message and a positive attitude about the program's development and program projects
- Interpret federal policy and procedures
- Frequently communicate with federal employees through their agencies' policies and procedures
- Address large groups and write effectively
- Work independently or as part of a team on assigned tasks

Benefits

More than Just a Paycheck!

Employee benefits are not just about the kind of services you get, they are also about how much you may have to pay out of pocket. Washington State offers one of the most competitive benefits packages in the nation.

We understand that your life revolves around more than just your career. Like everyone, your first priority is ensuring that you and your family will maintain health and financial security. That's why choice is a key component of our benefits package. We have a selection of health and retirement plans, paid leave, staff training and other compensation benefits that you can mix and match to meet your current and future needs.

Read about our benefits:

The following information describes typical benefits available for full-time employees who are expected to work more than six months. Actual benefits may vary by appointment type or be prorated for other than full-time work (e.g. part-time); view the job posting for benefits details for job types other than full-time.

Note: If the position offers benefits which differ from the following, the job posting should include the specific

benefits.

Insurance Benefits

Employees and their families are covered by medical (including vision), dental and basic life insurance. There are multiple medical plans with affordable monthly premiums that offer coverage throughout the state.

Staff are eligible to enroll each year in a medical flexible spending account which enables them to use tax-deferred dollars toward their health care expenses. Employees are also covered by basic life and long-term disability insurance, with the option to purchase additional coverage amounts.

To view premium rates, coverage choice in your area and how to enroll, please visit the Public Employees Benefits Board \(PEBB\) website. The Washington Wellness program from the Health Care Authority works with PEBB to support our workplace wellness programs.

Dependent care assistance allows the employee to save pre-tax dollars for a child or elder care expenses.

Other insurance coverage for auto, boat, home, and renter insurance is available through payroll deduction.

The Washington State Employee Assistance Program promotes the health and well-being of employees.

Retirement and Deferred Compensation

State Employees are members of the Washington Public Employees' Retirement System (PERS). New employees have the option of two employer contributed retirement programs. For additional information, check out the Department of Retirement Systems' web site.

Employees also have the ability to participate in the Deferred Compensation Program \(DCP\). This is a supplemental retirement savings program (similar to an IRA) that allows you control over the amount of pre-tax salary dollars you defer as well as the flexibility to choose between multiple investment options.

Social Security

All state employees are covered by the federal Social Security and Medicare systems. The state and the employee pay an equal amount into the system.

Public Service Loan Forgiveness

If you are employed by a government or not-for-profit organization, and meet the qualifying criteria, you may be eligible to receive student loan forgiveness under the Public Service Loan Forgiveness Program.

Holidays

Full-time and part-time employees are entitled to paid holidays and one paid personal holiday per calendar year.

Note: Employees who are members of certain Unions may be entitled to additional personal leave day(s), please refer to position specific Collective Bargaining Agreements for more information.

Full-time employees who work full monthly schedules qualify for holiday compensation if they are employed before the holiday and are in pay status for at least 80 nonovertime hours during the month of the holiday; or for the entire work shift preceding the holiday.

Part-time employees who are in pay status during the month of the holiday qualify for the holiday on a pro-rata basis. Compensation for holidays (including personal holiday) will be proportionate to the number of hours in pay status in the month to that required for full-time employment, excluding all holiday hours. Pay status includes hours worked and time on paid leave.

Sick Leave

Full-time employees earn eight hours of sick leave per month. Overtime eligible employees who are in pay status for less than 80 hours per month, earn a monthly proportionate to the number of hours in pay status, in the month to that required for full-time employment. Overtime exempt employees who are in pay status for less than 80 hours per month do not earn a monthly accrual of sick leave.

Sick leave accruals for part-time employees will be proportionate to the number of hours in pay status, in the month to that required for full-time employment. Pay status includes hours worked, time on paid leave and paid holiday.

Vacation (Annual Leave)

Full-time employees accrue vacation leave at the rates specified in WAC 357-31-165\(1\) or the applicable collective bargaining agreement (CBA). Full-time employees who are in pay status for less than 80 nonovertime hours in a month do not earn a monthly accrual of vacation leave.

Part-time employees accrue vacation leave hours in accordance with WAC 357-31-165\(1\) or the applicable collective bargaining agreement (CBA) on a pro rata basis. Vacation leave accrual will be proportionate to the number of hours in pay status, in the month to that required for full-time employment.

Pay status includes hours worked, time on paid leave and paid holiday.

As provided in WAC 357-58-175, an employer may authorize a lump-sum accrual of vacation leave or accelerate the vacation leave accrual rate to support the recruitment and/or retention of a candidate or employee for a Washington Management Service position. Vacation leave accrual rates may only be accelerated using the rates established WAC 357-31-165.

Note: Most agencies follow the civil service rules covering leave and holidays for exempt employees even though there is no requirement for them to do so. However, agencies are required to adhere to the applicable RCWs pertaining holidays and leave.

Military Leave

Washington State supports members of the armed forces with 21 days paid military leave per year.

Bereavement Leave

Most employees whose family member or household member dies, or for loss of pregnancy, are entitled to five (5) days of paid bereavement leave. In addition, the employer may approve other available leave types for the purpose of bereavement leave.
