Want to join something GREAT and make a difference?

The Department of Natural Resources (DNR) has two exciting opportunities as a Forest Practices Forester, Natural Resource Specialist 3 (NRS3).

Are you a person with a Natural Resources/Forestry background who desires to gain experience as a Forest Practices Forester? If you enjoy working outdoors, appreciate a remote natural environment, want to provide assistance to forest landowners, and have practical forestry skills with a proven ability to work as part of a small team, then this is the job for you.

The DNR Pacific Cascade Region Forest Practices Program is seeking a forester to join a team that administers the Forest Practices Act while working with large industrial and small forest landowners. You will be the on-the-ground forester reviewing Forest Practices Applications/Notifications, water type modification forms, and other forest management activities on State, County, and private forestlands within a geographical unit. This position will work with a multi-agency and tribal interdisciplinary team, as well as Region and Division staff, while ensuring all applicable rules of the Forest Practices Act are administered and enforced. Additionally, you will assist forest landowners during field reviews or refer them to the Small Forest Landowners office for assistance programs.

Duties

Responsibilities:

- Review and approve, condition, or disapprove Forest Practices Applications/Notifications (FPA/N's). Independently review FPA/N's for completeness and determine whether they can be accepted for review, based on established parameters. Independently solicit input from Timber, Fish, and Wildlife (TFW) cooperators or agency experts.
- Facilitate TFW interdisciplinary team meetings for evaluating FPA/N's and water type modification forms (WTMF) when needed.
- Independently conduct compliance on FPA/N's and unpermitted violations of the forest practices rules. Take enforcement action when needed.
- Conducts on-site reviews with forest landowners for rule Interpretation, and pre-application reviews.

- Provide information and consultation services regarding interpretations of the Forest Practices Rules to forest landowners, other agencies, and the general public. Educate landowners regarding DNR's Small Forest Landowners Office and stewardship programs related to Forest Practices Rules.

Qualifications

Required Qualifications:

- Associate Degree in Forestry or similar natural resources degree AND 3 years of experience; OR an equivalent combination of education and/or relevant experience.
- Experience with computer programs (Word, Excel) and DNR GIS mapping systems.
- Ability to communicate effectively both orally and in writing:
  - Convey clear and consistent messages to achieve desired outcomes
  - Address problems/issues in a professional and respectful manner
  - Provide outstanding customer service (applicants, TFW cooperators, etc.)
  - Work effectively as part of a team to build trust and solve problems.
- Ability to plan and prioritize own work schedule and establish routines for efficiency with minimal supervisory input.
- Commitment to fostering and supporting an environment that honors diversity, equity, inclusion, and environmental justice practices.
- Perform assigned duties in a manner consistent with applicable laws, regulations, and public records retention and requests are followed.
- DNR Core Competencies:
  - Personal Accountability
  - Value Others
  - Compassionate Communication
  - Inspire Others
  - Commitment to Excellence

Special Requirements and Conditions of Employment:

- The majority (70%) of field work is performed in isolated forest settings. Incumbent must be able to traverse steep, uneven terrain in all weather conditions. Approximately 30% of the work is performed in an office setting.
- Position requires traveling alone on highway and forest roads. Some overnight stays may be required – per diem and lodging costs covered when in travel status, except when provided by the agency.

- A current, valid driver's license and two years of driving experience. Additionally, DNR requires state drivers to possess a license that is not suspended, revoked, or restricted (for example, Occupational/Restricted Driver Licenses or requiring ignition interlock devices). This position requires driving as an essential function. Finalists and/or interview candidates will be asked to provide a driving record from all states in which they have held a license during the past three years.

Desired Qualifications:

- A bachelor's degree involving major study in forestry, or related natural science, and two years of professional experience in a related natural resource specialty area.
- Experience with and an understanding of Washington's Forest Practices Rules and guidance structure.

Don't let doubts stop you from applying for this position. At DNR, we value diversity and inclusion in our organization, and we are looking for the best person for the job. We are invested in acquiring the best and most innovative candidate for the job, and that candidate may be one from a less traditional background. It is important you consider and clearly communicate within your application materials how your education, volunteer work, life skills, and experience transfer to this position and the qualifications. If you have any questions about the qualifications, please contact us at DNRrecruiting@dnr.wa.gov. Don't hesitate to apply!

Benefits

More than Just a Paycheck!

Employee benefits are not just about the kind of services you get, they are also about how much you may have to pay out of pocket. Washington State offers one of the most competitive benefits packages in the nation.

We understand that your life revolves around more than just your career. Like everyone, your first priority is ensuring that you and your family will maintain health and financial security. That's why choice is a key component of our benefits package. We have a selection of health and retirement plans, paid leave, staff training and other compensation benefits that you can mix and match to meet your current and future needs.

Read about our benefits:

The following information describes typical benefits available for full-time employees who are expected to work more than six months. Actual benefits may vary by appointment type or be prorated for other than full-time work (e.g. part-time); view the job posting for benefits details for job types other than full-time.

Note: If the position offers benefits which differ from the following, the job posting should include the specific benefits.

Insurance Benefits

Employees and their families are covered by medical (including vision), dental and basic life insurance. There are multiple medical plans with affordable monthly premiums that offer coverage throughout the state.

Staff are eligible to enroll each year in a medical flexible spending account which enables them to use tax-deferred dollars toward their health care expenses. Employees are also covered by basic life and long-term disability insurance, with the option to purchase additional coverage amounts.

To view premium rates, coverage choice in your area and how to enroll, please visit the Public Employees Benefits Board \(PEBB\) website. The Washington Wellness program from the Health Care Authority works with PEBB to support our workplace wellness programs.

Dependent care assistance allows the employee to save pre-tax dollars for a child or elder care expenses.

Other insurance coverage for auto, boat, home, and renter insurance is available through payroll deduction.

The Washington State Employee Assistance Program promotes the health and well-being of employees.

Retirement and Deferred Compensation

State Employees are members of the Washington Public Employees' Retirement System (PERS). New employees have the option of two employer contributed retirement programs. For additional information, check out the Department of Retirement Systems' web site.

Employees also have the ability to participate in the Deferred Compensation Program \(DCP\). This is a supplemental retirement savings program (similar to an IRA) that allows you control over the amount of pre-tax salary dollars you defer as well as the flexibility to choose between multiple investment options.

Social Security

All state employees are covered by the federal Social Security and Medicare systems. The state and the employee pay an equal amount into the system.

Public Service Loan Forgiveness

If you are employed by a government or not-for-profit organization, and meet the qualifying criteria, you may be eligible to receive student loan forgiveness under the Public Service Loan Forgiveness Program.

Holidays

Full-time and part-time employees are entitled to paid holidays and one paid personal holiday per calendar year.

Note: Employees who are members of certain Unions may be entitled to additional personal leave day(s), please refer to position specific Collective Bargaining Agreements for more information.

Full-time employees who work full monthly schedules qualify for holiday compensation if they are employed before the holiday and are in pay status for at least 80 nonovertime hours during the month of the holiday; or for the entire work shift preceding the holiday.

Part-time employees who are in pay status during the month of the holiday qualify for the holiday on a pro-rata basis. Compensation for holidays (including personal holiday) will be proportionate to the number of hours in pay status in the month to that required for full-time employment, excluding all holiday hours. Pay status includes hours worked and time on paid leave.

Sick Leave

Full-time employees earn eight hours of sick leave per month. Overtime eligible employees who are in pay status for less than 80 hours per month, earn a monthly proportionate to the number of hours in pay status, in the month to that required for full-time employment. Overtime exempt employees who are in pay status for less than 80 hours per month do not earn a monthly accrual of sick leave.

Sick leave accruals for part-time employees will be proportionate to the number of hours in pay status, in the month to that required for full-time employment. Pay status includes hours worked, time on paid leave and paid holiday.

Vacation (Annual Leave)

Full-time employees accrue vacation leave at the rates specified in WAC 357-31-165\(1\) or the applicable collective bargaining agreement (CBA). Full-time employees who are in pay status for less than 80 nonovertime hours in a month do not earn a monthly accrual of vacation leave.

Part-time employees accrue vacation leave hours in accordance with WAC 357-31-165\(1\) or the applicable collective bargaining agreement (CBA) on a pro rata basis. Vacation leave accrual will be proportionate to the number of hours in pay status, in the month to that required for full-time employment.

Pay status includes hours worked, time on paid leave and paid holiday.

As provided in WAC 357-58-175, an employer may authorize a lump-sum accrual of vacation leave or accelerate the vacation leave accrual rate to support the recruitment and/or retention of a candidate or employee for a Washington Management Service position. Vacation leave accrual rates may only be accelerated using the rates established WAC 357-31-165.

Note: Most agencies follow the civil service rules covering leave and holidays for exempt employees even though there is no requirement for them to do so. However, agencies are required to adhere to the applicable RCWs pertaining holidays and leave.

Military Leave

Washington State supports members of the armed forces with 21 days paid military leave per year.

Bereavement Leave

Most employees whose family member or household member dies, or for loss of pregnancy, are entitled to five (5) days of paid bereavement leave. In addition, the employer may approve other available leave types for the purpose of bereavement leave.

Additional Leave

Leave Sharing

Parental Leave

Family and Medical Leave Act \(FMLA\)

Leave Without Pay
