Want to join something GREAT and make a difference?

The Department of Natural Resources (DNR) has an exciting opportunity within our Southeast Region as the Klickitat Unit Forester.

Are you someone who loves the outdoors, is passionate about forestry, and wants to manage a productive, eastside forest for Washington State? If you love working outdoors, appreciate a remote natural environment, have great forest management skills, a working knowledge of timber harvesting methods and silviculture, and enjoy working independently as part of a high-functioning team, then this job might be for you. The Department of Natural Resources, Southeast Region, is looking for a Unit Forester to lead our Klickitat Unit.

Duties

What we will trust you with: This position is responsible for forest management planning, pre-sales, silviculture, and contract administration in the Klickitat unit, including the following duties:

- Manage approximately 110,000 acres of State timberlands for timber, wildlife, and multiple-use objectives
- Act as the project manager in the implementation of the dynamic 5-year forest management plan for the Unit
- Responsible for all field operations in the Unit, including:
 - Manage the Unit staff to achieve an annual timber sale cut of approximately 6-10 million board feet and administer 3-4 timber sales
 - Prepare legal documents (FPA, SEPA, contracts, etc.) for timber sales
 - Complete unit-specific financial analysis to show the greatest return on investment for the trusts
 - In coordination with the Wildlife Biologist, ensure management activities comply with the agency's HCP, maintaining habitat and other protections for wildlife
 - Coordinate with the road engineer to ensure all existing and newly constructed roads are maintained and built to Forest Practice Standards

- Plan, schedule, budget, and oversee silvicultural activities, including site preparation, reforestation, pre-commercial thinning, vegetation management, and prescribed fire for the Unit
- Coordinate with agency colleagues in Product Sales, Cultural Resources, Wildlife Biologist, Roads, Right of Ways, and Recreation
- Complete surveys and data collection for scheduled activities
- Supervise one to two permanent professional staff, including hiring, training, mentoring, and disciplinary action
- Represent the DNR and develop good working relationships with private contractors, businesses, governmental officials, and the public when addressing complex, sensitive issues affecting the Unit

Qualifications

Required Qualifications:

- Bachelor's degree in forestry or related field AND two years professional forestry experience; OR equivalent combination of education and/or experience.
- Knowledge of theory, policy, principles, and practices of the forestry profession as applied to the Northwestern United States (i.e., fundamentals of silviculture of Northwest species, markets and economics, cruising methods, sales layout, logging methods, engineering, plant nutrition, propagation and weed control, reforestation and intensive forest practices, recreation, multiple use, inventory, water quality, watershed management, and basic principles of fisheries management).
- Knowledge of Forest Management objectives and timber management planning in practice, and as it relates to associated agency policies and rules.
- Experience in timber sales contract preparation and administration.
- Experience in logging and forest road construction equipment and use.
- Strong understanding of forest mensuration and survey tools such as GPS, laser measurement devices, compass, clinometer, and other forestry equipment.
- Strong understanding of software, including ArcGIS, cruising software, standard office (Word, Excel, etc.) programs, and mobile devices.
- Excellent written and verbal communication.
- Planning and assigning work, including setting performance standards and expectations, and evaluating and documenting performance.
- Commitment to fostering and supporting an environment that honors diversity, equity, inclusion, and environmental justice practices.
- Perform assigned duties in a manner consistent with applicable laws, regulations, and public records retention and requests are followed.
- DNR Core Competencies:

- Personal Accountability
- Value Others
- Compassionate Communication
- Inspire Others
- Commitment to Excellence

Special Requirements and Conditions of Employment:

- Office 50%, Field 50%; Field work may be arduous and includes navigating steep and difficult terrain in all weather conditions.
- Travel may be required periodically as a function of this position.
- A current, valid driver's license and two years of driving experience. Additionally, DNR requires state drivers to possess a license that is not suspended, revoked, or restricted (for example, Occupational/Restricted Driver Licenses or requiring ignition interlock devices). This position requires driving as an essential function. Finalists and/or interview candidates will be asked to provide a driving record from all states in which they have held a license during the past three years.

Desired Qualifications:

- Bachelor's degree in forest management, forest operations, or silviculture, and three years of professional forestry experience.
- Experience practicing forestry and silviculture tasks involved in the management of State trust lands.
- One year of supervisory experience with responsibility for assigning work, coaching, and evaluating the work product of other staff.
- Experience with timber marketing and financial appraisals.
- Experience utilizing forest growth and yield simulators.
- Facilitation and negotiation skills.
- Experience with Employee recruitment and selection.
- Knowledge of employee performance feedback, coaching, training, motivation, and employee development planning, including corrective action tools and strategies.
- Knowledge of employment rules and regulations as they apply to permanent and non-permanent DNR employees.

Don't let doubts stop you from applying for this position. At DNR, we value diversity and inclusion in our organization, and we are looking for the best person for the job. We are invested in acquiring the best and most innovative candidate for the job, and that candidate may be one from a less traditional background. It is important you consider and clearly communicate within your application materials how your education, volunteer work, life skills, and experience transfer to this position and the qualifications. Benefits

More than Just a Paycheck!

Employee benefits are not just about the kind of services you get, they are also about how much you may have to pay out of pocket. Washington State offers one of the most competitive benefits packages in the nation.

We understand that your life revolves around more than just your career. Like everyone, your first priority is ensuring that you and your family will maintain health and financial security. That's why choice is a key component of our benefits package. We have a selection of health and retirement plans, paid leave, staff training and other compensation benefits that you can mix and match to meet your current and future needs.

Read about our benefits:

The following information describes typical benefits available for full-time employees who are expected to work more than six months. Actual benefits may vary by appointment type or be prorated for other than full-time work (e.g. part-time); view the job posting for benefits details for job types other than full-time.

Note: If the position offers benefits which differ from the following, the job posting should include the specific benefits.

Insurance Benefits

Employees and their families are covered by medical (including vision), dental and basic life insurance. There are multiple medical plans with affordable monthly premiums that offer coverage throughout the state.

Staff are eligible to enroll each year in a medical flexible spending account which enables them to use tax-deferred dollars toward their health care expenses. Employees are also covered by basic life and long-term disability insurance, with the option to purchase additional coverage amounts.

To view premium rates, coverage choice in your area and how to enroll, please visit the Public Employees Benefits Board \(PEBB\) website. The Washington Wellness program from the Health Care Authority works with PEBB to support our workplace wellness programs.

Dependent care assistance allows the employee to save pre-tax dollars for a child or elder care expenses.

Other insurance coverage for auto, boat, home, and renter insurance is available through payroll deduction.

The Washington State Employee Assistance Program promotes the health and well-being of employees.

Retirement and Deferred Compensation

State Employees are members of the Washington Public Employees' Retirement System (PERS). New employees have the option of two employer contributed retirement programs. For additional information, check out the Department of Retirement Systems' web site.

Employees also have the ability to participate in the Deferred Compensation Program (DCP). This is a supplemental retirement savings program (similar to an IRA) that allows you control over the amount of pre-tax salary dollars you defer as well as the flexibility to choose between multiple investment options.

Social Security

All state employees are covered by the federal Social Security and Medicare systems. The state and the employee pay an equal amount into the system.

Public Service Loan Forgiveness

If you are employed by a government or not-for-profit organization, and meet the qualifying criteria, you may be eligible to receive student loan forgiveness under the Public Service Loan Forgiveness Program.

Holidays

Full-time and part-time employees are entitled to paid holidays and one paid personal holiday per calendar year.

Note: Employees who are members of certain Unions may be entitled to additional personal leave day(s), please refer to position specific Collective Bargaining Agreements for more information.

Full-time employees who work full monthly schedules qualify for holiday compensation if they are employed before the holiday and are in pay status for at least 80 nonovertime hours during the month of the holiday; or for the entire work shift preceding the holiday.

Part-time employees who are in pay status during the month of the holiday qualify for the holiday on a pro-rata basis. Compensation for holidays (including personal holiday) will be proportionate to the number of hours in pay status in the month to that required for full-time employment, excluding all holiday hours. Pay status includes hours worked and time on paid leave.

Sick Leave

Full-time employees earn eight hours of sick leave per month. Overtime eligible employees who are in pay status for less than 80 hours per month, earn a monthly proportionate to the number of hours in pay status, in the month to that required for full-time employment. Overtime exempt employees who are in pay status for less than 80 hours per month do not earn a monthly accrual of sick leave.

Sick leave accruals for part-time employees will be proportionate to the number of hours in pay status, in the month to that required for full-time employment. Pay status includes hours worked, time on paid leave and paid holiday.

Vacation (Annual Leave)

Full-time employees accrue vacation leave at the rates specified in WAC 357-31-165\(1\) or the applicable collective bargaining agreement (CBA). Full-time employees who are in pay status for less than 80 nonovertime hours in a month do not earn a monthly accrual of vacation leave.

Part-time employees accrue vacation leave hours in accordance with WAC 357-31-165\(1\) or the applicable collective bargaining agreement (CBA) on a pro rata basis. Vacation leave accrual will be proportionate to the number of hours in pay status, in the month to that required for full-time employment.

Pay status includes hours worked, time on paid leave and paid holiday.

As provided in WAC 357-58-175, an employer may authorize a lump-sum accrual of vacation leave or accelerate the vacation leave accrual rate to support the recruitment and/or retention of a candidate or employee for a Washington Management Service position. Vacation leave accrual rates may only be accelerated using the rates established WAC 357-31-165.

Note: Most agencies follow the civil service rules covering leave and holidays for exempt employees even though there is no requirement for them to do so. However, agencies are required to adhere to the applicable RCWs pertaining holidays and leave.

Military Leave

Washington State supports members of the armed forces with 21 days paid military leave per year.

Bereavement Leave

Most employees whose family member or household member dies, or for loss of pregnancy, are entitled to five (5) days of paid bereavement leave. In addition, the employer may approve other available leave types for the purpose of bereavement leave.

Additional Leave
