Duties

Responsibilities:

The Wildfire Preparedness Coordinator is responsible for DNR's preseason agreement application/agreement process. This position routinely communicates with contractors and DNR staff. The incumbent is responsible for answering questions and reviewing the preseason agreement applications for operations, logistics, and crews. Executes the preseason agreements and disseminates them to the required parties. Coordinates making the Wildland Fire Management Division's casual hire letters and manages the hiring process. Coordinates with the DNR Coordination Center (DNRCC) staff to dispatch Incident Management Teams and additional firefighting and support resources, including dispatching overhead, equipment, crews, and supplies.

Qualifications

Required Qualifications:

- An AA degree, or equivalent trade school course credits, preferably in a natural resources field, AND 2 years of professional experience working with the general public, contracts/agreements, or other related fields; OR an equivalent combination of education and/or experience.
- Experience successfully updating and maintaining contracts/agreements and spreadsheets.
- Experience prioritizing, multitasking, and making decisions in a fast-paced and sometimes stressful environment while maintaining a professional and respectful demeanor.
- Completed FEMA ICS 100, 200, 700, and 800 courses.
- Excellent interpersonal communication skills with co-workers, partner agency employees, and the general public.
- Strong professional writing skills and knowledge of Microsoft Office programs.
- Proficiency in using independent judgment to resolve problems.
- Emotional intelligence skills to include:

- Work to preserve the self-confidence and self-esteem of others.
- Recognizes differences as opportunities to learn and grow by working together in a cohesive team setting.
- Establish and maintain constructive relationships.
- Focus on the situation, issue, or behavior, not the person.
- Take initiative to make things better.
- Model appropriate behaviors for others.
- Experience with anticipating the implications and consequences of situations/decisions and taking appropriate action, and communicating to be prepared for possible contingencies.
- Commitment to fostering and supporting an environment that honors diversity, equity, inclusion, and environmental justice practices.
- Perform assigned duties in a manner consistent with applicable laws, regulations, and public records retention and requests are followed.
- DNR Core Competencies:
 - Personal Accountability
 - Value Others
 - Compassionate Communication
 - Inspire Others
 - Commitment to Excellence

Special Requirements and Conditions of Employment:

- This position is expected to work primarily in the DNR Coordination Center during fire season. Fire assignments outside of the DNR Coordination Center may be considered on a case-by-case basis. The majority is in an indoor office setting. During the closed fire season period, telework may be an option.
- Minimal travel may be required; it may involve overnight accommodations. possibly up to 10 nights per year.

Desired Qualifications:

- Bachelor's degree in a relevant field (Natural Resources, Emergency Management, Contract Management, etc.).
- One year of experience working at a wildland fire agency with knowledge of incident dispatch, travel processes, and procedures.
- IS-230.E: Fundamentals of Emergency Management.
- IS-240.C: Leadership and Influence.
- IS-241.C: Decision Making and Problem Solving.
- IS-242.C: Effective Communication.
- L-180 Human Factors in the Wildland Fire Service.
- Knowledge of the Interagency Resource Ordering Capability (IROC) dispatch program.

Don't let doubts stop you from applying for this position. At DNR, we value diversity and inclusion in our organization, and we are looking for the best person for the job. We are invested in acquiring the best and most innovative candidate for the job, and that candidate may be one from a less traditional background. It is important you consider and clearly communicate within your application materials how your education, volunteer work, life skills, and experience transfer to this position and the qualifications. Benefits

More than Just a Paycheck!

Employee benefits are not just about the kind of services you get, they are also about how much you may have to pay out of pocket. Washington State offers one of the most competitive benefits packages in the nation.

We understand that your life revolves around more than just your career. Like everyone, your first priority is ensuring that you and your family will maintain health and financial security. That's why choice is a key component of our benefits package. We have a selection of health and retirement plans, paid leave, staff training and other compensation benefits that you can mix and match to meet your current and future needs.

Read about our benefits:

The following information describes typical benefits available for full-time employees who are expected to work more than six months. Actual benefits may vary by appointment type or be prorated for other than full-time work (e.g. part-time); view the job posting for benefits details for job types other than full-time.

Note: If the position offers benefits which differ from the following, the job posting should include the specific benefits.

Insurance Benefits

Employees and their families are covered by medical (including vision), dental and basic life insurance. There are multiple medical plans with affordable monthly premiums that offer coverage throughout the state.

Staff are eligible to enroll each year in a medical flexible spending account which enables them to use tax-deferred dollars toward their health care expenses. Employees are also covered by basic life and long-term disability insurance, with the option to purchase additional coverage amounts.

To view premium rates, coverage choice in your area and how to enroll, please visit the Public Employees Benefits Board \(PEBB\) website. The Washington Wellness program from the Health Care Authority works with PEBB to support our workplace wellness programs.

Dependent care assistance allows the employee to save pre-tax dollars for a child or elder care expenses.

Other insurance coverage for auto, boat, home, and renter insurance is available through payroll deduction.

The Washington State Employee Assistance Program promotes the health and well-being of employees.

Retirement and Deferred Compensation

State Employees are members of the Washington Public Employees' Retirement System (PERS). New employees have the option of two employer contributed retirement programs. For additional information, check out the Department of Retirement Systems' web site.

Employees also have the ability to participate in the Deferred Compensation Program (DCP). This is a supplemental retirement savings program (similar to an IRA) that allows you control over the amount of pre-tax salary dollars you defer as well as the flexibility to choose between multiple investment options.

Social Security

All state employees are covered by the federal Social Security and Medicare systems. The state and the employee pay an equal amount into the system.

Public Service Loan Forgiveness

If you are employed by a government or not-for-profit organization, and meet the qualifying criteria, you may be eligible to receive student loan forgiveness under the Public Service Loan Forgiveness Program.

Holidays

Full-time and part-time employees are entitled to paid holidays and one paid personal holiday per calendar year.

Note: Employees who are members of certain Unions may be entitled to additional personal leave day(s), please refer to position specific Collective Bargaining Agreements for more information.

Full-time employees who work full monthly schedules qualify for holiday compensation if they are employed before the holiday and are in pay status for at least 80 nonovertime hours during the month of the holiday; or for the entire work shift preceding the holiday.

Part-time employees who are in pay status during the month of the holiday qualify for the holiday on a pro-rata basis. Compensation for holidays (including personal holiday) will be proportionate to the number of hours in pay status in the month to that required for full-time employment, excluding all holiday hours. Pay status includes hours worked and time on paid leave.

Sick Leave

Full-time employees earn eight hours of sick leave per month. Overtime eligible employees who are in pay status for less than 80 hours per month, earn a monthly proportionate to the number of hours in pay status, in the month to that required for full-time employment. Overtime exempt employees who are in pay status for less than 80 hours per month do not earn a monthly accrual of sick leave.

Sick leave accruals for part-time employees will be proportionate to the number of hours in pay status, in the month to that required for full-time employment. Pay status includes hours worked, time on paid leave and paid holiday.

Vacation (Annual Leave)

Full-time employees accrue vacation leave at the rates specified in WAC 357-31-165\(1\) or the applicable collective bargaining agreement (CBA). Full-time employees who are in pay status for less than 80 nonovertime hours in a month do not earn a monthly accrual of vacation leave.

Part-time employees accrue vacation leave hours in accordance with WAC 357-31-165\(1\) or the applicable collective bargaining agreement (CBA) on a pro rata basis. Vacation leave accrual will be proportionate to the number of hours in pay status, in the month to that required for full-time employment.

Pay status includes hours worked, time on paid leave and paid holiday.

As provided in WAC 357-58-175, an employer may authorize a lump-sum accrual of vacation leave or accelerate the vacation leave accrual rate to support the recruitment and/or retention of a candidate or employee for a Washington Management Service position. Vacation leave accrual rates may only be accelerated using the rates established WAC 357-31-165.

Note: Most agencies follow the civil service rules covering leave and holidays for exempt employees even though there is no requirement for them to do so. However, agencies are required to adhere to the applicable RCWs pertaining holidays and leave.

Military Leave

Washington State supports members of the armed forces with 21 days paid military leave per year.

Bereavement Leave

Most employees whose family member or household member dies, or for loss of pregnancy, are entitled to five (5) days of paid bereavement leave. In addition, the employer may approve other available leave types for the purpose of bereavement leave.

Additional Leave

Leave Sharing

Parental Leave

Family and Medical Leave Act \(FMLA\)

Leave Without Pay
