

RECRUITING NOW...

Environment for the Americas Internship Programs

Environment for the Americas internship programs seeks to engage racially and ethnically diverse college students, graduates, graduate students, veterans, and others up to age 35 in natural resource, conservation, and stewardship careers.

environmentamericas.org • internships@environmentamericas.org

Fish and Feathers Internship Program

Be a spokesperson for fishing and birdwatching activities at national parks across the country (National Park Service) • Application Due: February 5, 2024

Latino Heritage Internship Program

Early career Latino participants work with parks to conduct scientific and cultural research, communications, outreach and education, and more (National Park Service)
• Application Due: February 5, 2024

Monarch & Pollinator Research and Education, CA, TX, KS, OK, MN

6 week to 6 month program conducting monarch & other pollinator surveys and developing education/ outreach activities on military installations • Application Due: February 5, 2024

Mosaics in Science Diversity Internship Program

Be part of a 12 or 20 week research team and work side-by-side with scientists at national parks (National Park Service) • Application Due: January 21, 2024

Resource Assistants Program

8 -12 month positions working in various roles across the country (US Forest Service)
• Application Due: April 2024

Learn more about
Internships, careerfairs, and applications