JOB DESCRIPTIONS

Technician Internships offered by SPI often result in offers of employment upon graduation from our interns' respective degree programs. Completion of an internship is not a guarantee, nor an offer, of regular, full-time employment.

This opportunity will immerse selected interns into the log procurement program for a top tier operating sawmill.

Exposure to timber cruising, logging, and sawmill supply chain logistics will provide a real world foundation for continued education or a career in procurement forestry.

The Procurement Technician's primary duty will include cruising timber that is available for purchase and working with the Timber Manager to implement the log plan for a sawmill.

QUALIFICATIONS

Graduation from, current enrollment in, or acceptance in a Forestry, Natural Resources, or related program of study is preferred.

Employees must have a valid driver's license and provide their own cruiser vests and boots.
