Want to join something GREAT and make a difference?

Are you a geoscientist with a passion for clear, concise writing and an appreciation for eye-catching graphic design and effective cartography? Are you looking for a job with variety, where no two days are alike? Do you want to collaborate closely with a wide range of scientists, editors, and designers on work that really matters? If this sounds appealing, you might be a perfect fit for our Geologic Publications Editor position! This position is a unique opportunity to combine your scientific training with your publications and design background to do work that touches many different parts of the Washington Geological Survey, from natural hazards to geologic mapping and earth resources. The position works on a wide variety of products, including maps, pamphlets, fact sheets, posters, and booklets, and targets a range of audiences, from the general public to fellow geologists. You could be creating a map one day, editing a technical pamphlet the next, then spend a day developing graphics and writing new content for our website. You will also be editing and publishing rapid reports and maps for post-wildfire debris flow assessments and developing outreach materials for post-fire hazard awareness. The position is part of the Publications Group, a highly collaborative team of editors, cartographers, and data scientists who ensure all the products the Survey publishes are of the highest quality. Our editors are an important component of this team as well as key players in the work of the Survey as a whole. If you think you could be a good fit for our team, we would love to receive your application!

Duties

Responsibilities:

- Creating a variety of publications, maps, graphics, and figures using professional design and layout software.
- Technical and copyediting of text written by Survey authors, including providing constructive feedback on style and content.
- Generating and editing new content for our websites.
- Effective time management and ability to work independently on assigned tasks.
- Good communication, teamwork, and a positive, diligent work ethic.
- Creativity, enthusiasm, and a desire to learn new skills.

Qualifications

Required Qualifications:

- Bachelor's degree in geology or closely related discipline in the geosciences.
- Two years of experience editing and producing publications, OR equivalent experience doing this work during graduate studies.
- Demonstrated competence in technical editing and copy editing.
- Demonstrated competence in page layout, graphic design, and map creation.
- Proficiency with Microsoft Office and Adobe Creative Suite or similar programs.
- Knowledge of GIS software and experience working with geospatial data.
- Demonstrated experience in science communication, including creating content for audiences with minimal scientific background.
- Demonstrated commitment to fostering and supporting an environment that honors diversity, equity and inclusion and environmental justice practices.
- Perform assigned duties in a manner consistent with applicable laws, regulations and public records retention and requests are followed.
- Ability to provide and accept constructive feedback.
- DNR Core Competencies:
 - Personal Accountability
 - Value Others
 - Compassionate Communication
 - Inspire Others
 - Commitment to Excellence

Special Requirements and Conditions of Employment:

- Office, with telework flexibility
- Occasional travel to conferences, meetings, or workshops.

Desired Qualifications:

- Master's degree in geology or closely related discipline in the geosciences.
- Familiarity with Washington State geography and geology.
- Experience creating and editing geologic maps.
- Experience with web design and maintenance, including knowledge of HTML.
- Experience with social media.
- Photography and illustration skills.
- Experience in project management.

Don't let doubts stop you from applying for this position - If you have any questions about the required qualifications or how your past experience relates to them, please contact us at DNRrecruiting@dnr.wa.gov. A note to potential candidates: Studies have shown that women, trans, non-binary, and Black, Indigenous, and people of color (BIPOC) are less likely to apply for jobs unless they feel they meet every qualification as described in a job description. We value diversity and inclusion in our organization, and we are looking for the best person for the job. Don't hesitate to apply!

Supplemental InformationApplication Requirements:

- To be considered you must apply online at www.careers.wa.gov (Click on the APPLY button above).
- Attach a letter of interest describing how your experience and qualifications relate to the position profile and the position required, desired, and special requirements.

Benefits

More than Just a Paycheck!

Employee benefits are not just about the kind of services you get, they are also about how much you may have to pay out of pocket. Washington State offers one of the most competitive benefits packages in the nation.

We understand that your life revolves around more than just your career. Like everyone, your first priority is ensuring that you and your family will maintain health and financial security. That's why choice is a key component of our benefits package. We have a selection of health and retirement plans, paid leave, staff training and other compensation benefits that you can mix and match to meet your current and future needs.

Read about our benefits:

The following information describes typical benefits available for full-time employees who are expected to work more than six months. Actual benefits may vary by appointment type or be prorated for other than full-time work (e.g. part-time); view the job posting for benefits details for job types other than full-time.

Note: If the position offers benefits which differ from the following, the job posting should include the specific benefits.

Insurance Benefits

Employees and their families are covered by medical (including vision), dental and basic life insurance. There are multiple medical plans with affordable monthly premiums that offer coverage throughout the state.

Staff are eligible to enroll each year in a medical flexible spending account which enables them to use tax-deferred dollars toward their health care expenses. Employees are also covered by basic life and long-term disability insurance, with the option to purchase additional coverage amounts.

To view premium rates, coverage choice in your area and how to enroll, please visit the Public Employees Benefits Board \(PEBB\) website. The Washington Wellness program from the Health Care Authority works with PEBB to support our workplace wellness programs.

Dependent care assistance allows the employee to save pre-tax dollars for a child or elder care expenses.

Other insurance coverage for auto, boat, home, and renter insurance is available through payroll deduction.

The Washington State Employee Assistance Program promotes the health and well-being of employees.

Retirement and Deferred Compensation

State Employees are members of the Washington Public Employees' Retirement System (PERS). New employees have the option of two employer contributed retirement programs. For additional information, check out the Department of Retirement Systems' web site.

Employees also have the ability to participate in the Deferred Compensation Program (DCP). This is a supplemental retirement savings program (similar to an IRA) that allows you control over the amount of pre-tax salary dollars you defer as well as the flexibility to choose between multiple investment options.

Social Security

All state employees are covered by the federal Social Security and Medicare systems. The state and the employee pay an equal amount into the system.

Public Service Loan Forgiveness

If you are employed by a government or not-for-profit organization, and meet the qualifying criteria, you may be eligible to receive student loan forgiveness under the Public Service Loan Forgiveness Program.

Holidays

Full-time and part-time employees are entitled to paid holidays and one paid personal holiday per calendar year.

Note: Employees who are members of certain Unions may be entitled to additional personal leave day(s), please refer to position specific Collective Bargaining Agreements for more information.

Full-time employees who work full monthly schedules qualify for holiday compensation if they are employed before the holiday and are in pay status for at least 80 nonovertime hours during the month of the holiday; or for the entire work shift preceding the holiday.

Part-time employees who are in pay status during the month of the holiday qualify for the holiday on a pro-rata basis. Compensation for holidays (including personal holiday) will be proportionate to the number of hours in pay status in the month to that required for full-time employment, excluding all holiday hours. Pay status includes hours worked and time on paid leave.

Sick Leave

Full-time employees earn eight hours of sick leave per month. Overtime eligible employees who are in pay status for less than 80 hours per month, earn a monthly proportionate to the number of hours in pay status, in the month to that required for full-time employment. Overtime exempt employees who are in pay status for less than 80 hours per month do not earn a monthly accrual of sick leave.

Sick leave accruals for part-time employees will be proportionate to the number of hours in pay status, in the month to that required for full-time employment. Pay status includes hours worked, time on paid leave and paid holiday.

Vacation (Annual Leave)

Full-time employees accrue vacation leave at the rates specified in WAC 357-31-165\(1\) or the applicable collective bargaining agreement (CBA). Full-time employees who are in pay status for less than 80 nonovertime hours in a month do not earn a monthly accrual of vacation leave.

Part-time employees accrue vacation leave hours in accordance with WAC 357-31-165\(1\) or the applicable collective bargaining agreement (CBA) on a pro rata basis. Vacation leave accrual will be proportionate to the number of hours in pay status, in the month to that required for full-time employment.

Pay status includes hours worked, time on paid leave and paid holiday.

As provided in WAC 357-58-175, an employer may authorize a lump-sum accrual of vacation leave or accelerate the vacation leave accrual rate to support the recruitment and/or retention of a candidate or employee for a Washington Management Service position. Vacation leave accrual rates may only be accelerated using the rates established WAC 357-31-165.

Note: Most agencies follow the civil service rules covering leave and holidays for exempt employees even though there is no requirement for them to do so. However, agencies are required to adhere to the applicable RCWs pertaining holidays and leave.

Military Leave

Washington State supports members of the armed forces with 21 days paid military leave per year.

Bereavement Leave

Most employees whose family member or household member dies, are entitled to three (3) days of paid bereavement leave. In addition, the employer may approve other available leave types for the purpose of bereavement leave.

Additional Leave

Leave Sharing

Parental Leave

Family and Medical Leave Act \(FMLA\)

Leave Without Pay

Please visit the State HR Website for more detailed information regarding benefits.
