

NOW HIRING INTERNS

NATIONAL CHAMPION TREE PROGRAM

THE ADVENTURE OF A LIFETIME

PROTECTING AMERICA'S LARGEST TREES

As a National Champion Tree Intern, you'll be at the forefront of our mission to showcase and preserve the giants of the plant kingdom. This unique opportunity combines social media prowess, community outreach, education, and on-the-ground exploration. Dive into the heart of nature as you travel and hike within your region, discovering and measuring potential Champions. The rest of your work? You can do it from the comfort of your own home!

🌲 $17 an hour

🌲 About 10 hours a week

🌲 May to December

Required qualifications:

- must be a university student
  - end of Junior year – beginning of Senior year preferred
- excellent at self-directed work
- dendrology/tree identification coursework or experience
- strong communication skills

Preferred qualifications:

- Experience in:
  - graphic design
  - social media management
  - community outreach
  - data management

To apply, please email resume/CV and any graphic design or social media post examples to contact@nationalchampiontree.org